ESAs publish SFDR templates in editable format

On 26 July, and following the publication of the Regulatory Technical Standards (RTS) to the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR), the three European Supervisory Authorities (ESAs) made available annexes to the regulation in Word format. This will allow for easier access to the templates for financial market participants preparing for the application of the RTS from 1 January 2023.

Members can find below the links to these Annexes:

- Annex I – Principal adverse sustainability impacts
- Annex II – Pre-contractual environmental social characteristics
- Annex III – Pre-contractual sustainable investment objective
- Annex IV – Periodic environmental social characteristics
- Annex V – Periodic sustainable investment objective
