Subject: Indirect taxation booklet now available

Action requested

Members are asked to communicate to their member companies the procedure for receiving a free copy of Insurance Europe's "Indirect taxation on insurance contracts in Europe" report outlined below.

Members are also encouraged to promote the report in their market.

Summary

The Executive Committee decided in April 2017 to start charging for Insurance Europe's "Indirect taxation on insurance contracts in Europe" report. Copies can now be purchased through the Insurance Europe website. However, copies of the report will remain for free for Insurance Europe members and their member companies.

Procedure for members and their member companies to receive a free copy

- Send an e-mail to publication@insuranceeurope.eu to request a discount code. Please indicate that you are a member of Insurance Europe or of one of its member associations.
- You will receive an e-mail with a discount code.
- Complete the order form on the Insurance Europe website, entering the code in the "discount code" field.
- Click on the "proceed to checkout" button to finalise the order.
- You will receive an e-mail with a link to download your personal copy of the publication.

Important: Please note that all discount codes and copies of the report are personal and these should not be forwarded.

Promotion of report to non-members

Insurance Europe's "Indirect taxation on insurance contracts in Europe" report provides a full survey of the rules, tariffs and regulations in 28 European countries and is updated annually. It also includes an overview of the taxes applicable to insurance premiums, as well as the various declaration and payment procedures.

The countries included in the publication are: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and the UK.

More information about the report can be found here.

The report is only free for Insurance Europe members and their member companies. All other interested parties must buy a copy of the report for €199 excl. VAT. It is currently only possible to pay by credit card with Visa, Mastercard and American Express.
